Tiny Town, USA – You wanna learn how to be a reporter. Look for little signs, first: In Spring, a utility pole -- in fact all such poles with the name Mercury (poison, stuff for thermometers and nasty industrial stuff or winged messenger?) was a beautiful worn mix of purples and blues.

In Darktober, we find the same pole re-painted a Shirley Temple red. Go find out why and tell me.

– Franklin Crawford, a guy who put in his time as a hack journalist.
