Hi Mr. Handy - We have never met but I am a long time transplant (since 1982) that used to enjoy your columns in the IJ.

When you were absent from it, I lamented that you were too edgy for that staid broadsheet and found refuge in some less PC glen.

Imagine my delight at stumbling upon TTT, as well as my chagrin at having spent the whole evening poring over it instead of doing the work I intended.

The double edged sword cuts again! Thank you for the wonderful language and pithy observation. If you happen to be roaming around Fall Creek please stop by and say hi.
